

Friday 5 June 2009

MEDIA RELEASE

Chicks bring back the fame and glamour to Canberra...

This year 1106 birds have been entered into the Royal Canberra National Poultry Show being held at Exhibition Park in Canberra – Fitzroy Pavilion. Starting from tomorrow, they will be displayed, judged and some will even be up for sale!

The Poultry Show provides an opportunity to buy from reputable breeders with healthy purebred birds and to look forward to fresh tasty eggs from your backyard.

There are so many different breeds to check out such as the Frizzle, Indian Runner, Hamburgh, Dorking and the feature breed 'Campine'. So don't miss out on this opportunity to meet these bizarre named birds and discover their different characters.

For photo opportunities, media can attend the Show today from 3pm onwards as there are many different varieties of chooks to take photos of.

The Royal Canberra National Poultry Show will be held on:

- Saturday 6 June, 9am – 5pm
- Sunday 7 June, 9am – 2pm

Show entry is ONLY $3.

For more information on the Poultry Show tomorrow visit www.rncas.org.au.

Media Enquiries to:

Senay Kose, Marketing Manager
Ph: 6241 2478, Mob: 0415 193 674

Geoff Cannock, Chief Executive Officer
Ph: 6241 2478, Mob: 0409 597 175