28	Moppity Vineyards	Moppity Vineyards 2022 Lock & Key Rosé	86	Bronze
29	We Happy Few Wines	We Happy Few Wines 2021 Pink Smoke Rosé

Judge's Comment: A very well entered class and one that clearly signifies Rosé is very popular. A broad range of wines... a lot of variation in colour, sweetness, greener fruit profile and riper ones. Freshness, crispness of acidity and texture won out with the top two wines. Perfect for the warmer months.

Judge's Comment: Always a class of divergent styles! Some seek to work and extract more; others seek romantic florals and more gentle structural signatures. The best (as always) chased balance and a line that reflected cool climate middle-weightiness whilst also maintaining savoury spice and character.

Judge's Comment: Terrific class to judge. Some of the region's finest wine and the medal count reflects this. Graceful, medium-framed styles, with lovely tannins were highlights. Really a joy to see these.

Judge's Comment: A strong class of wines to judge and terrific to see. There are the usual wines with a bit too much ripeness and oak but like any region in the country, balance is key.
Tough to split the top two wines, refinement, elegance and purity, lovely wines.

Judge's Comment: Two cooler years expressing a challenge for fruit and tannin ripeness. A lot of red fruited wines here with mild lithe tannin framework.
