MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIR OF JUDGES

Judging for the 2013 National Wine Show is now complete and the nerve-racking process of finding out the trophy winning wines is over. I can now take a deep breath and look back at the highlights of the past four days of judging.

One of my personal highlights was the quality of the sparkling wine classes and especially the wines that have been made in Tasmania in the past decade. These wines are outstanding and often rivalled the quality of many non-vintage Champagnes. It is a shame these wines are not more popular and drunk more frequently in preference to their French equivalent. My personal favourite wine of the show was the House of Arras 2001 Blanc de Blancs. It is an outstanding wine, which I will be buying for Christmas morning.

The 2012 vintage is proving to be a very good vintage across Australia with a wide range of varieties, styles and regions making exceptional wines. This is the first occasion I have had to look at 2012 red wines in a show environment and many have lived up to the hype. The Pinot Noirs were very good as expected but I think we had the most fun judging the 2012 Shiraz classes. Class 18 consisted of 48 wines and we called back a potential 9 gold medals from regions that included Hilltops, Heathcote, Great Western, Pyrenees, Bellarine Peninsula, McLaren Vale, Barossa and Clare Valley. This was most pleasing considering some recent criticism of the show system for myopically awarding cool climate Shiraz and ignoring warmer riper styles.

Margaret River has performed very well again with many Sauvignon Blanc Semillon blends, Chardonnays, Cabernets and Cabernet blends and even Shiraz wines gaining high medals. The 2010 vintage in Margaret River looks like a classic vintage especially for its famous Cabernet Sauvignon and the wine of show is a great example of this.

The 2013 vintage for aromatic white wines looks to be an excellent year especially in the Adelaide Hills and Clare Valley. These are wines with heaps of fruit intensity and flavour and should provide lots of enjoyment over the summer months.

This year's judges spoke about what wines we were looking to reward and two points were often raised:

- a) a gold medal wine should be one that you are prepared to buy and put in your cellar; and
- b) reward wines that were grown and not made; wines that speak of place and are not clouded by excessive winemaking.

For the first time wines were grouped into regions, which greatly aided the judging process.

Stephen Pannell
